4. Bhoor Buwah Swah Swaaha (add one drop of ghee),

Word to word meaning does not give the purport of the mantras. When the mantras are chanted in the meter in which they are composed, by Supreme Grace the inherent meaning and the power and vibrations impact on the entire creation where the healing occurs at the grass roots level in the subtlest manner. This power of the mantra is locked into the ashes that develop in the fire upon the oblations. These vibrations pulsate the entire universe in a profound, subtle but sure impact and affect. It is like the fragrance and beauty is in the flower, the flower is in the form of a bud. By grace it radiates all its beauty and joy for the good of the entire universe when mantras are chanted.

Vyahruti Homa – Significance and Q&A

What is Vyahruti Homa?
Vyahruti Homa consists of 4 mantras as shown in the mantra area, performed any time or at the start of any event.

When can I perform?
It is performed at the beginning of any important event, at the beginning of any yagnya, at any special event in life, like a birthday, anniversary, job, education etc., for blessings of the Maha Vyahrutis. It can be performed any time of the day or night, no time limitation. It can be performed by one person or performed in a group by many people in many pyramids (same as agnihotra pyramid).

What is the significance?
Irrespective of what religion, fellowship one may be, what faith one may have, absolute Almighty Truth is one and only one. And it is free of any one religion or belief. So from that this Absolute Truth the phenomenal world came to being. A thought came that ‘I am alone, may I be many?’ And there after all this creation started. Pranava or Om is the first unstruck primonial sound. It consists of three letters A U M. These three letters expand into the three Vyahrutis. BUH, BHUVAH, SUVAH - They are the Maha Vyahrutis – the power of creation, power of sustenance, power of dissolution. Hindus believe, there is Brahma, Vishnu, Maheswar. Similarly, Sakti people believe, that there is Maha Kaali, Maha Lakshmi, Maha Saraswati. These are all expressions of same supreme truth, these are the essence of the three Vedas three vedas Rig, Yajus, and Sama. Since the sound of these mantras is from where the entire phenomenal world is created, it purifies the environment including the performer and everyone around.
